Membership Information

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of Arts on Main Gallery.

Arts on Main Gallery, (AOMG), is a premier co-operative art gallery, founded in 2007, representing artists who live in Prince Edward County and area. We are proud of our artists, teamwork and the camaraderie that have resulted in being one of the premier galleries in Eastern Ontario with customers locally to internationally. AOMG has a reputation for high quality artwork, with diversity in art media and price points. AOMG provides an opportunity for local artists to sell their work in a professional gallery, favourably located on Main Street, Picton. Applications for membership are juried by the executive and gallery members.

As a co-operative, artist members accept the following terms and responsibilities to ensure the continued success of the gallery.

Individual Member Commitment

Artwork: Members are expected to provide new work every 3 months and to replace sold pieces in a timely manner.

Financial Commitment: A fee of $1200 is paid annually or $300 paid quarterly. A one-year financial commitment is required upon joining AOMG.

Resignation: Members must give three (3) months written notice, duly signed, to the Chair of their intention to resign as members. This resignation becomes effective at the end of the third month concurrent with show dates, and the member's fiscal and gallery responsibilities extend to the end of said month. (there may be exceptions made for death in the family, medical issues or extenuating financial circumstances)

Duties: Members are required to share in the running of the gallery by participating in one or more of the following functional areas: Design/Hanging Committee, Advertising and Promotion, Membership, Finance, Gallery Operations & Maintenance, Board. Assignment of duties will be contingent upon gallery needs and the members experience/interest.

Gallery Staffing: Members are expected to staff the gallery on specified days, generally two to three 4-hour shifts monthly, including weekends, since the gallery is open 7 days a week (high season). Shoulder Season & Winter hours may vary.

Meetings: Members are expected to attend the General meetings of the Co-operative (held quarterly), the Annual meeting and the receptions for show openings.

Gallery Commitment

- AOMG commits to four shows per year, with 20% commission on sales
- AOMG actively promotes its artists and shows through a variety of advertising and publicity
- AOMG provides artists with an annual receipt for membership expenses for tax purposes if requested.
